

Karen S L Jang

kjang1@gmail.com

6 Zurich Ct., Pleasant Hill, California 94523

(925) 697 5440

anxiety of speech, cognitive linguistic deficits, language delay, dysfluency and articulation disorders

Supervise students in one of their four quarters of clinical experience in both individual and group therapy formats

Teach students to implement therapeutic techniques and strategies, data collection and reporting protocols, report and daily documentation requirements. Teach to implement routine hearing and oral motor screening protocols

Supervise students during diagnostic speech and language evaluations, helping students observe and document observations ages 20-70 with diagnoses such as Mental retardation, Down Syndrome, Cerebral Palsy, Cornelia de Lange syndrome, autism, seizure disorder and organic brain disease in Adult Day programs.

Designed and implemented augmentative communication methods personalized to the children and semi-annual reports for adults.

Designed and implemented augmentative communication methods personalized to the

Unlimited

... treatment services primarily to clients with

Novacare, Inc.

September 1990-May 1999

Speech Pathologist, awarded Clinical Specialist in Dysphagia and oral rehabilitation

Diagnosed, developed and implemented treatment plans for a variety of speech, hearing and swallowing disorders including, but not limited to aphasia, dysarthria, apraxia, dyslexia, hearing impairment, voice disorders and cerebral language dysfunction. Treatment plans encompassed both traditional and computerized therapy methods.

- Work environments included: skilled nursing facilities, inpatient and rehabilitation units in hospitals, home health and out patient clinics.

Developed and conducted in-services for nursing staff about speech, hearing impairment and dysphagia.

Provider credential for Clinical Fellowship Year Speech Therapist

Orange County Office of Education

February 1990, July 1990

Special Day class Toddler Teacher, Me Too Program, Solano County

Assessed children aged 2-3 years old for language, developmental, gross and fine motor delays and for annual IEP reviews.

Practitioner responsible for language, gross and fine motor delays in local schools.

Mount Diablo School District

October 1989-January 1990

Assessed children for speech and language delays and wrote IEP goals for students.

Ediac - 53-1-14301860

October 1987-August 1988

Speech Pathologist, Franco

Assessed children for speech and language delays and wrote IEP goals for students. Provided therapy for voice patients.

Developed and implemented treatment plans for a variety of speech, hearing and swallowing disorders including, but not limited to aphasia, dysarthria, apraxia, dyslexia, hearing impairment, voice disorders and cerebral language dysfunction. Treatment plans encompassed both traditional and computerized therapy methods.

University of California at Berkeley - California Clear Clinical Rehabilitation Services Credential

Master of Science in Speech Pathology and Audiology
California State University, Hayward - June 1990

Bachelor of Arts in Genetics

University of California at Berkeley - June 1983