

42
981

Construction project but documentation is scant and no archaeological evidence for Chinese

Construction project estimated to cost approximately $500,000 in materials and labor Overseas Chinese at the San Leandro Dam, C.E. Smith Museum Occasional Papers No. 1, to be published in late 1983.

performed the bulk of the heavy foot of construction in 1874–75 as many as period of dam construction in two tunnels were excavated in 1980 when a

In the reconstruction of the d use may have been employed on

two tunnels were excavated

remains of a workm

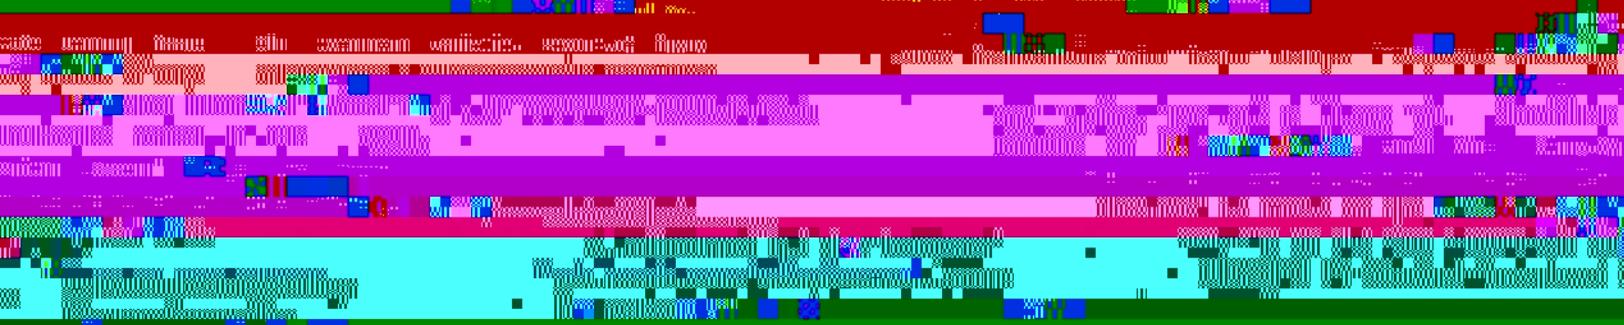

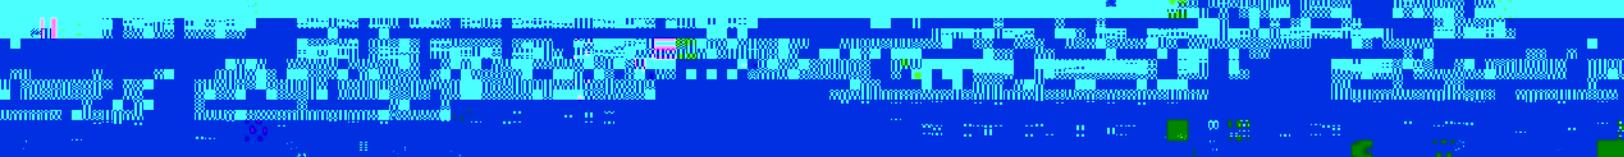

the project

excavated

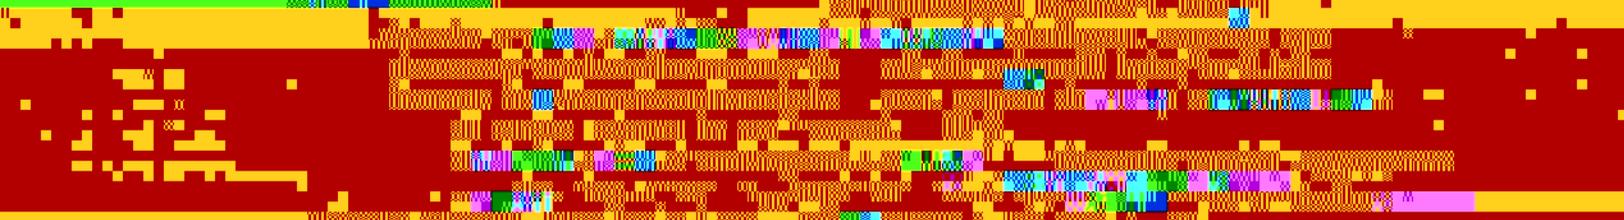

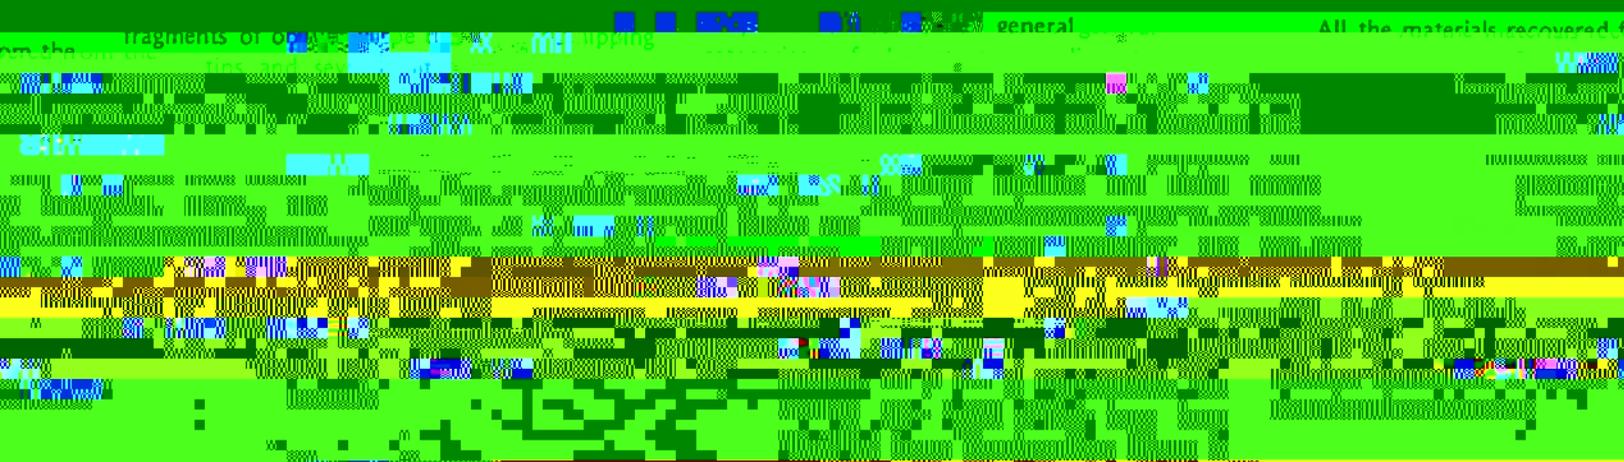

remains of a workm

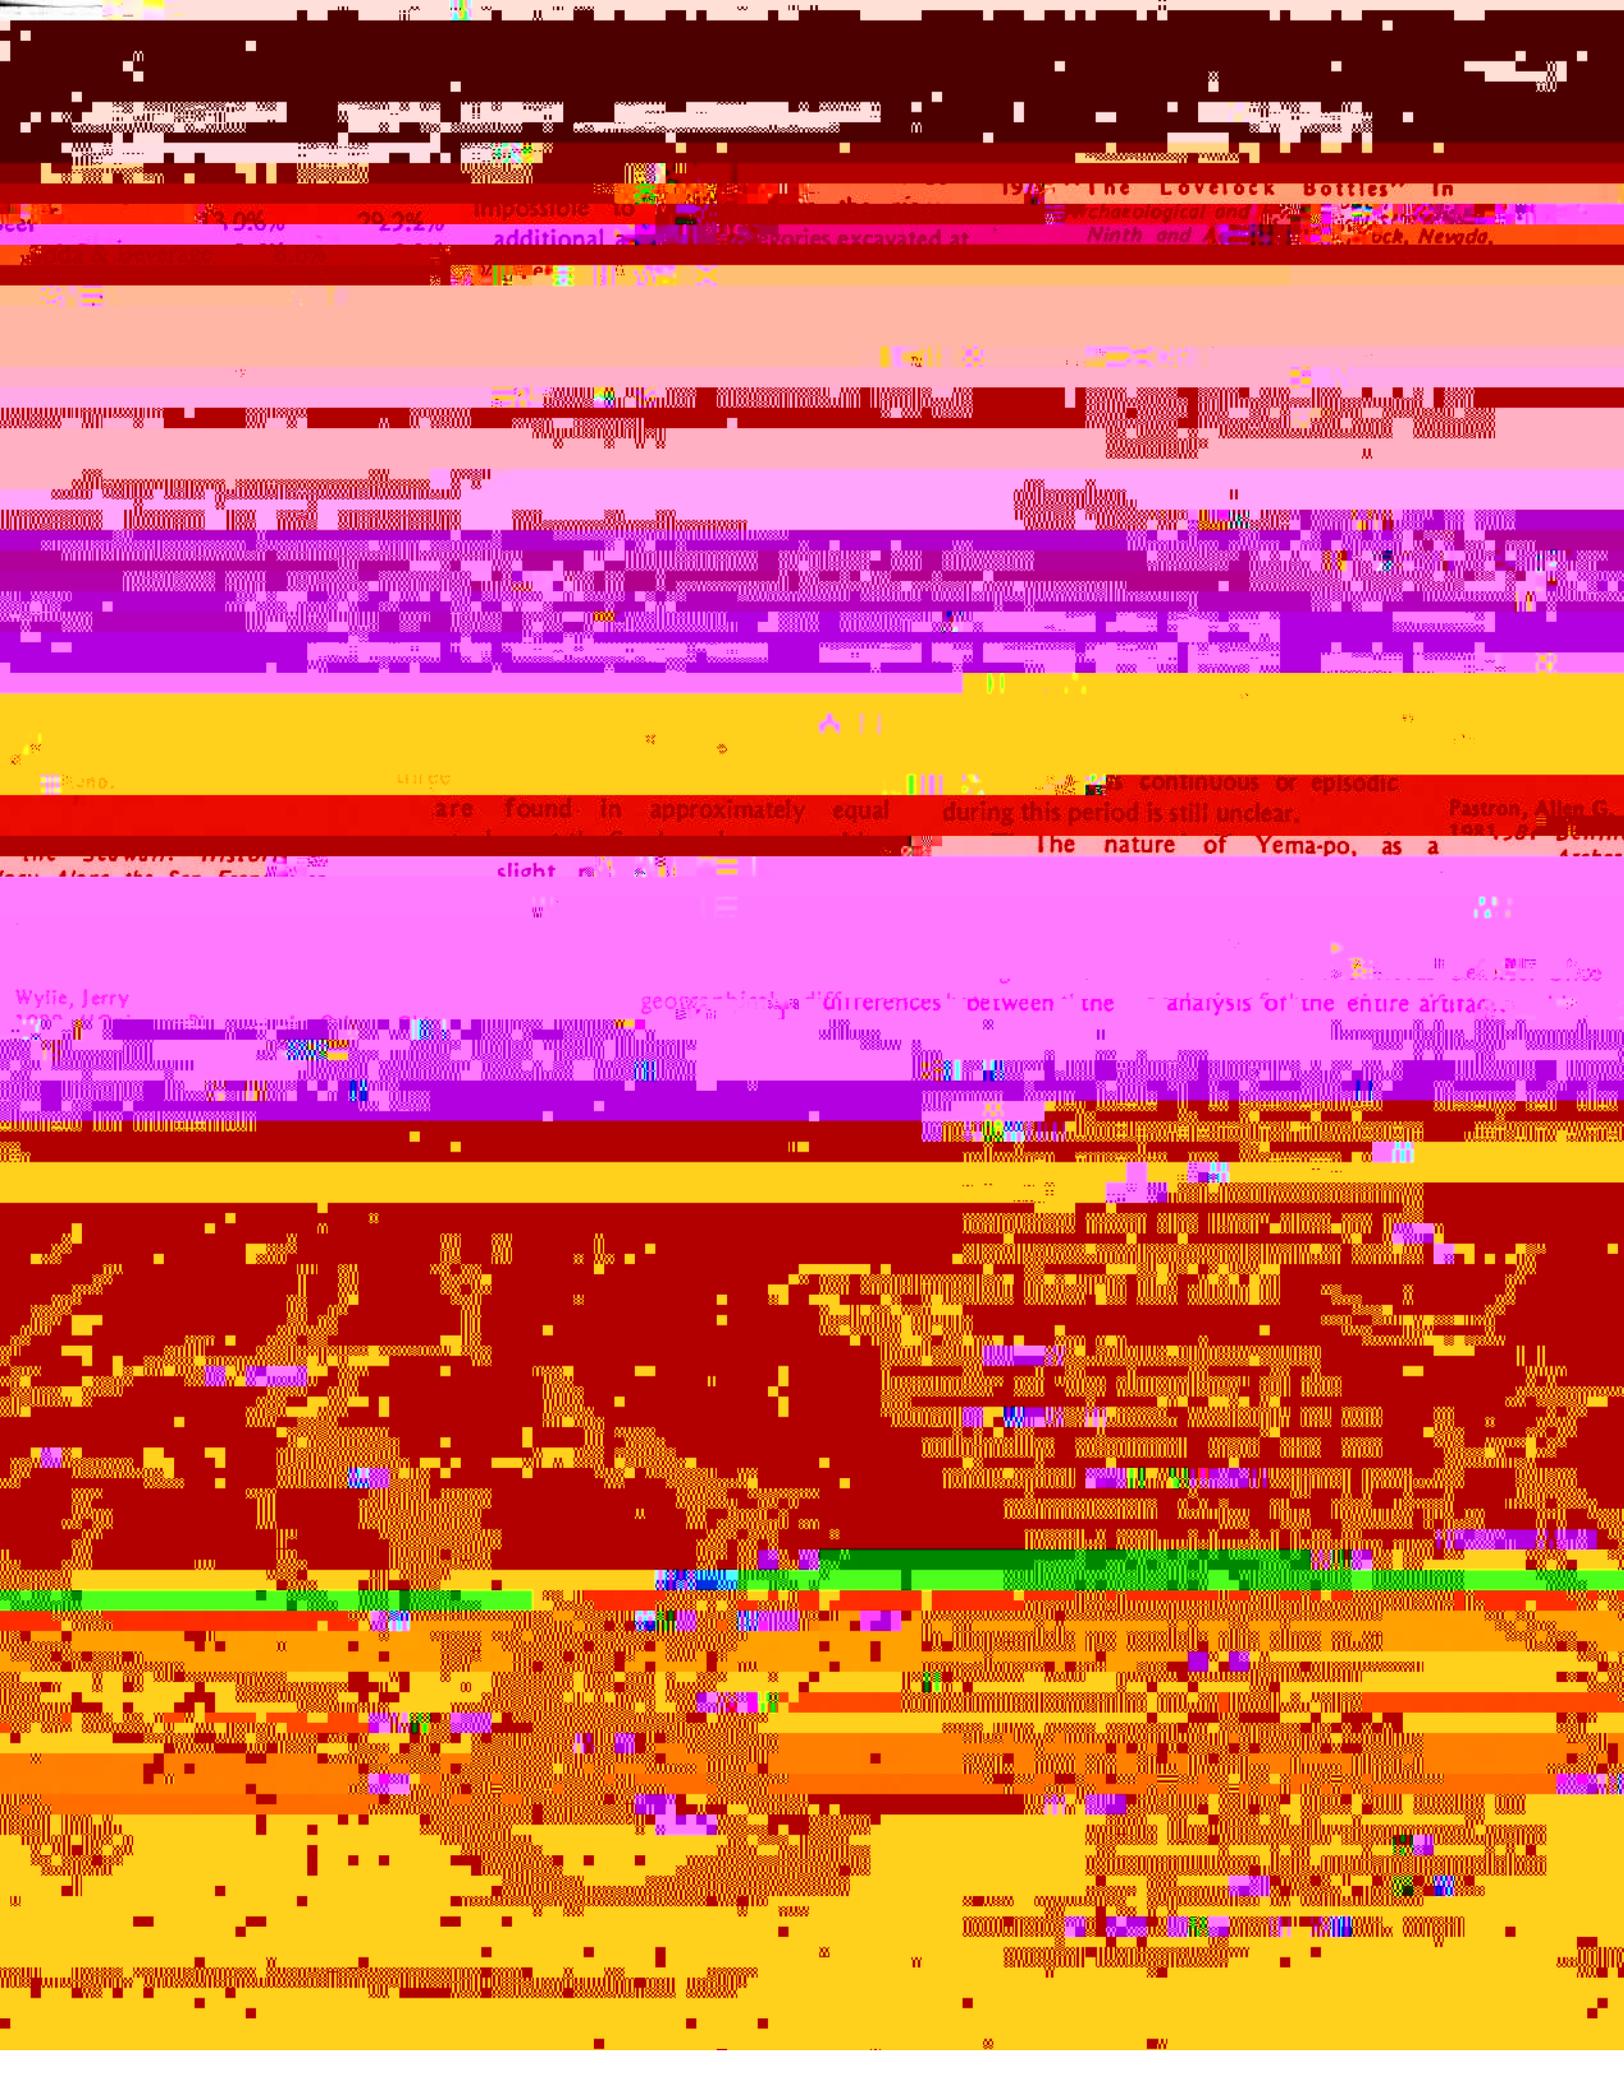

restaurant contains the Chinese characters "Xiang" Euro-American artifacts has been found. To date this second site fragments of objects, including a general. All the materials recovered 1978. "The Lovelock Bottles" in Archaeological and Geographical Studies of the Lovelock, Nevada.

impossible to excavate additional sites

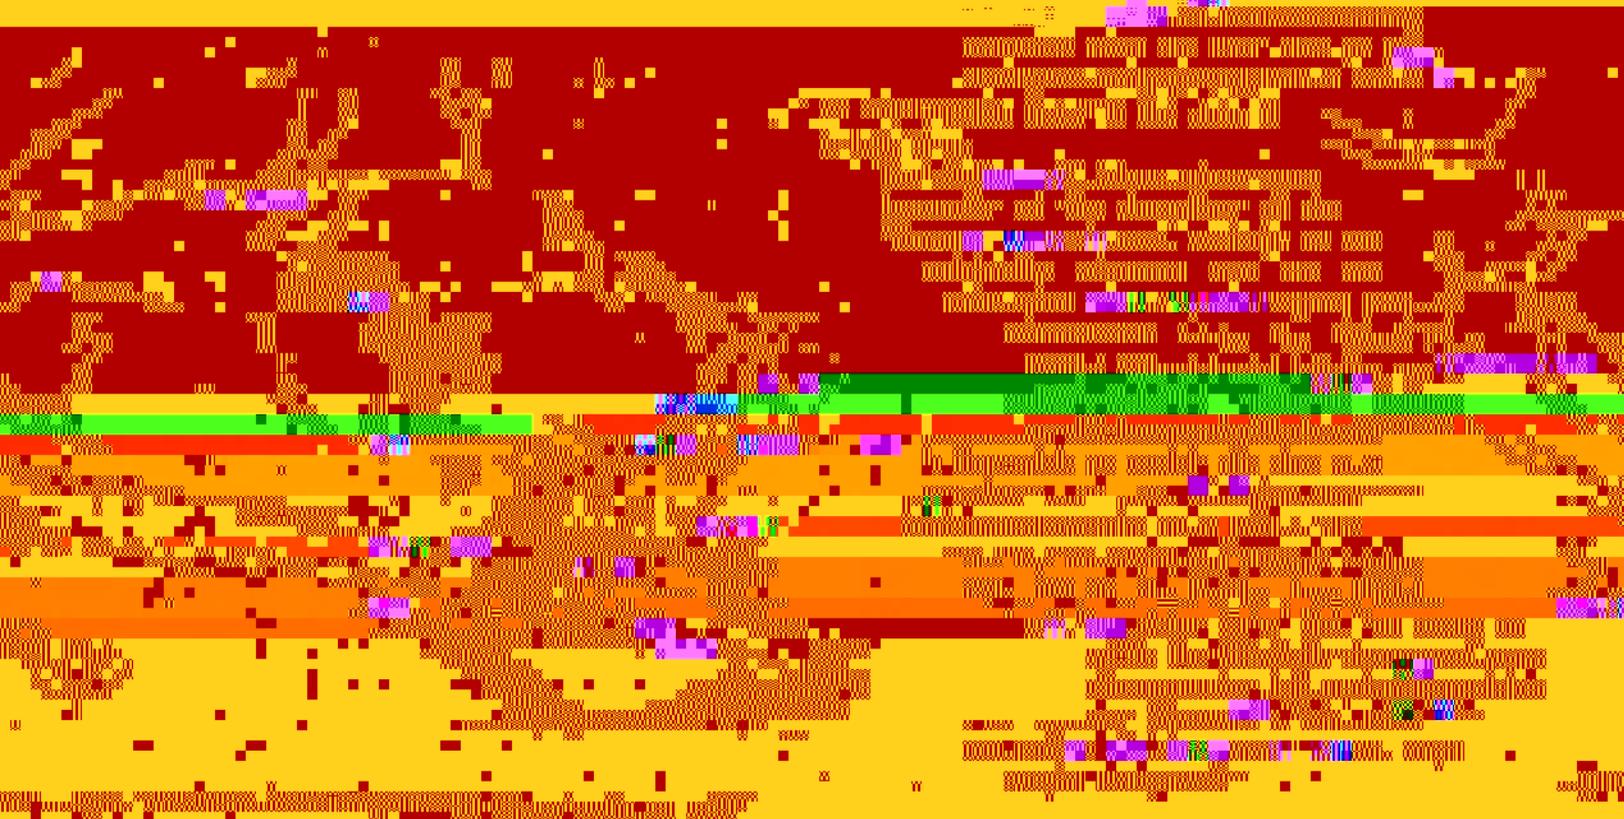

49.6% 29.2% 19.6%

are found in approximately equal numbers during this period is still unclear. The nature of Yema-po, as a Pastor, Allen G. 1981. Yema-po. Archaeological Studies of the Lovelock, Nevada. p. 1-10.

geographic differences between the analysis of the entire artifacts

Wylie, Jerry 1978. The Lovelock Bottles. Archaeological Studies of the Lovelock, Nevada. p. 11-20.

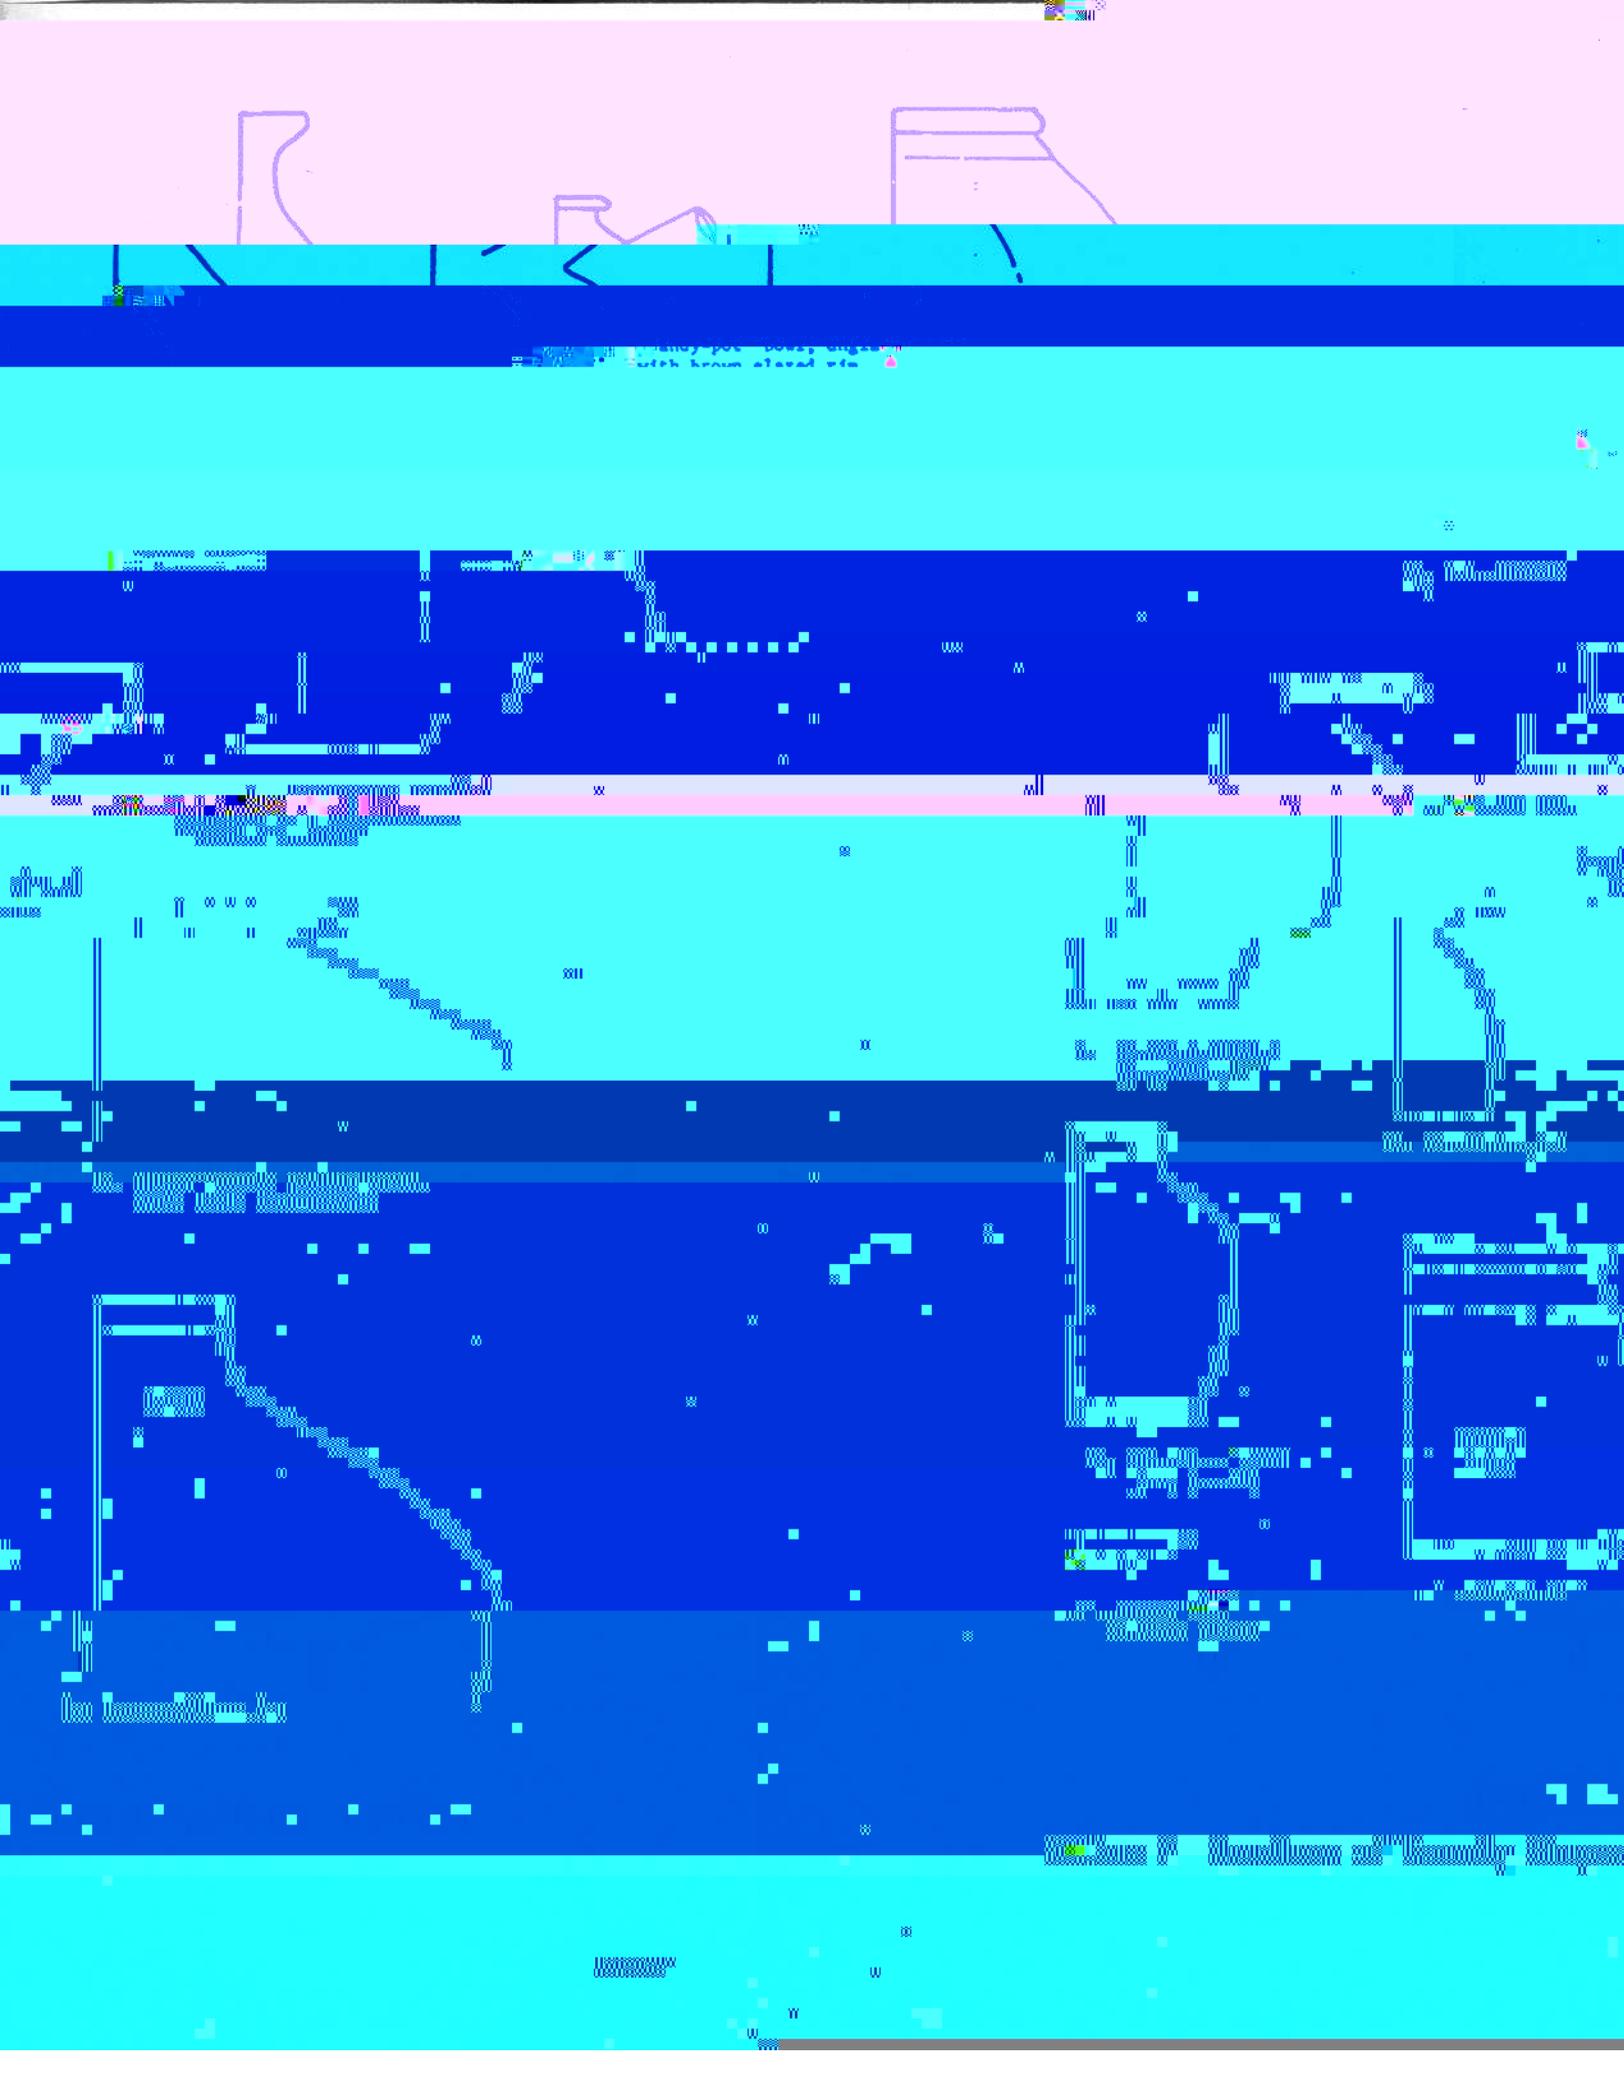

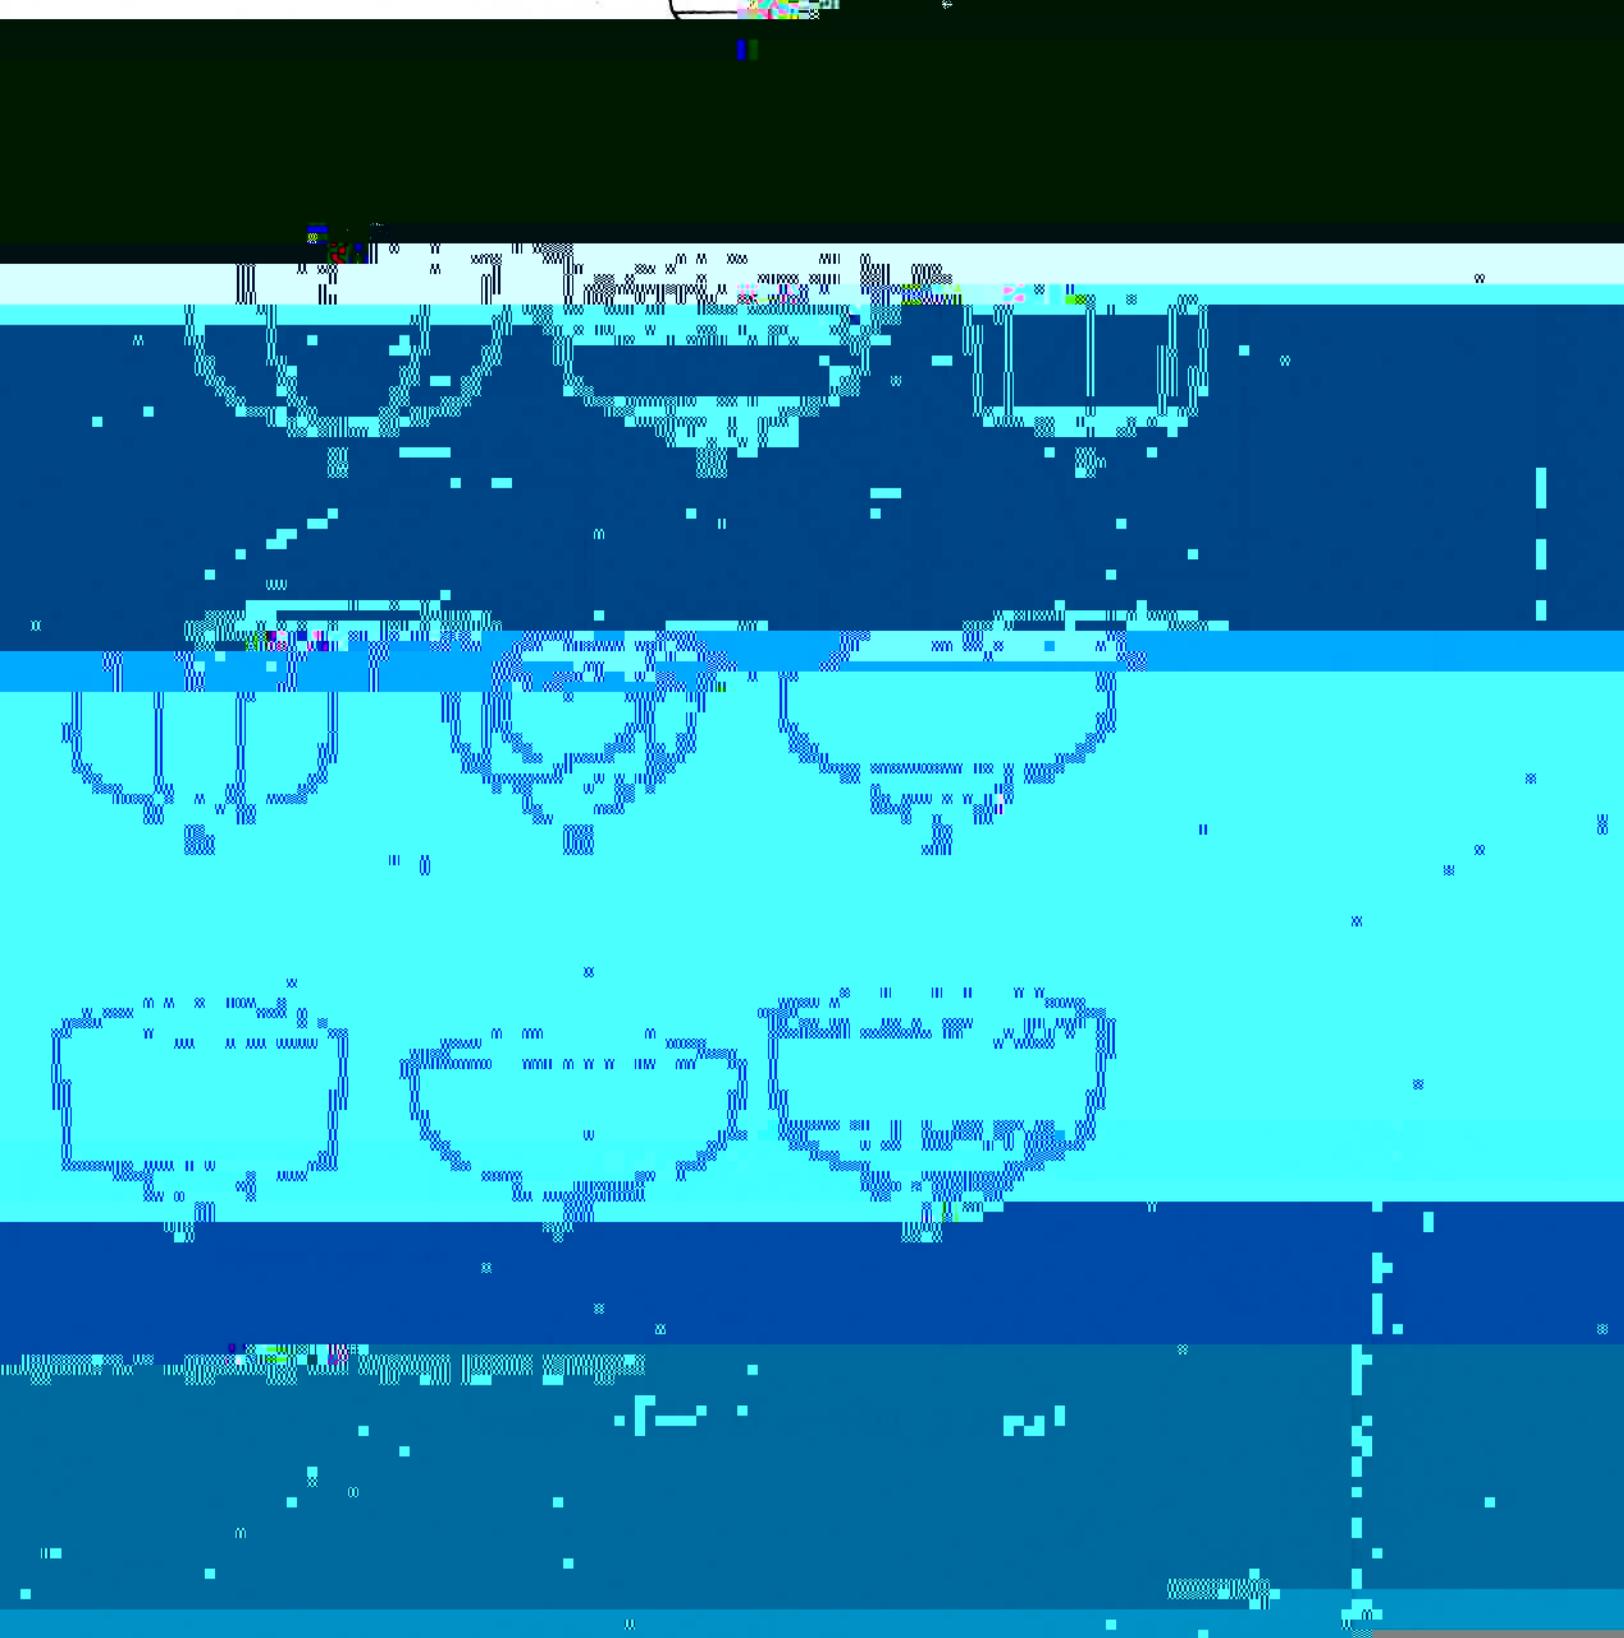

Figure 7: Evolution of the boundary integral

JOIN THE MUSEUM

