

SELF EVALUATION INSTRUCTIONS

All prerequisite courses taken at campuses other than Cal State East Bay must be approved as equivalent. Candidates can check Transfer Evaluation System (TES) for course equivalencies between California State University, East Bay and other colleges and universities.

For any courses that do not appear on TES that you think might satisfy our Nursing program prerequisites, forward syllabi and copies of transcripts for review to nursing@csueastbay.edu.

Use the chart at the bottom of this page to aid with your self-evaluation.

Have a 3.0 average cumulative GPA from the school where you completed your RN nursing program.

GPA CALCULATION FORMULA

Our calculations are for prerequisite GPA, not cumulative GPA. Only classes taken by the deadline are considered in GPA calculations.

To be eligible for the Nursing program, both the four science prerequisite classes by themselves, and all eight prerequisites combined have to be above a 3.00 average GPA. If the GPA for the eight prerequisites is above 3.00, but the GPA for the four
