

The mission of the Student Center for Academic Achievement (SCAA) is to provide CSUEB students with individual and collaborative learning opportunities within an inclusive environment fostering independent growth. The SCAA strives to cultivate adaptability, self-direction, and self-confidence through peer-to-peer support programs. SCAA services help students set achievable goals, develop academic skills, and improve subject comprehension. _____

The heart of the SCAA's work is a dedicated staff of peer leaders. The SCAA employs individuals who are interested in helping their peers engage in life-long learning; possess patience and good communication skills; are sensitive to diverse student needs; are reliable, committed, and accountable; are willing to creatively and collaboratively contribute to the advancement of the SCAA; and are interested in being a part of a community that is passionate about student success.

Do you often get asked to review papers by your classmates? Interested in learning about how to help others with their writing? Interested in developing communication skills? Consider applying to be a SCAA Writing Tutor - a versatile position.

Writing Associates are embedded within one course per semester to assist faculty and support student writing. This SCAA program is overseen by Dr. Sara Schupack. The writing tutor joins a class community, attending all class sessions and assisting the faculty in a range of ways, depending on the tutor's strengths and interests and the faculty's preferences. Activities include:

- Meeting with the faculty partner regularly and attending the class throughout the semester.

- With the instructor, establishing your role in the course for the semester, which can include giving written feedback, presenting an in-class workshop, or developing learning materials for students, depending on students' needs throughout the semester.

- Scheduling and providing individual and/or group consultations with students in addressing global and local concerns of a writing assignment.
